

A. Introduction

A.1. Description of problem Neighborhoods of Bangalore & Mumbai:

Mumbai and Bangalore are the major employment centers in India. Mumbai with a population of 280 Million (Urban conglomerate) is touted as commercial capital of India for ages. Bangalore on the other hand is coming of age on its own as the silicon valley of India and recently as start up capital of India.

Both cities have their advantages and disadvantages. With this project we will try and sort out the neighbourhoods in both cities with best of amenities for social life of a young, urban employee to enable a prospective employee zero in on a suitable based on select parameters.

A.2. Data Description

Data is gathered from following sources;

- We have relied on Pincode and geometrical coordinates available on <http://www.geonames.org/export/zip/>. We download the file for India. The file is uploaded to lab folder for easy access..
- Use Foursquare API to get the most common venues of given neighbourhoods in these two cities.

B. 1 Methodology

A total of 258 pincodes for the city of Bangalore and 146 Pincodes for the city of Mumbai were found. We will wrangle this data and make it useful through steps outlined in the report.

These pincodes contained erroneous entries, wrong geocoding etc. The datasets were therefore cleaned for errors, outliers etc and added to each other for visual effects. We pulled out data for both cities separately for this process. This will also help us save the data for cities separately for future use.

B.2 Data Cleaning:

Scatted plots, box plots provide us a bird view of distribution of datapoints for the cities indicating problematic datapoints.

We dropped outliers using interquartile ranges. After cleaning the data, we ended up with 270 localities (88 of Mumbai and 182 of Bangalore).

B.3 Generating Venues data and processing:

I utilized the Foursquare API to explore the neighbourhoods and segment them. The limit was set at 1000 & the radius was set at 500 meter for each neighbourhood from their given latitude and longitude. Here is a head list of Venues with name, category, latitude and longitude from Forsquare API.

B.3a Bangalore:

	Neighborhood	Pincode	Neighbor hood Latitude	Neighbo rhood Longitud e	Venue	Venue Latitude	Venue Longitude	Venue Category

We also did a commonality test to figure out if there are common categories of venues that can be found in both cities. We plotted a Venn chart to reflect the output.

I used K-Means to cluster the neighborhoods into 5 clusters based on the chart generated below on consolidated dataframe (elbow method).

C. Results

The results are better illustrated by the waffle chart as below;

Neighborhoods falling in cluster V have most number of venues. As may be recalled from the venn chart above, there are about 57 categories of venues found in both cities.

D. Discussion

As mentioned above, both cities offer best of amenities and recreational facilities for modern day lifestyle.

Key venue categories frequented by residents across clusters, are shown in the charts below.

F. Conclusion

Both cities are dotted with amenities necessary for modern lifestyle.

Neighborhoods falling in cluster 5 in both cities offer largest number of amenities (not account for travel and transport agencies!!). Main neighborhoods falling in cluster 5 are Adugodi, Agara, Banashankari II Stage, Bagalgunte, Banashankari III Stage in Bangalore and Naigaon, New Prabhadevi, Parel, Parel Naka and Prabhadevi in Mumbai.

Post filtering the neighborhoods based on the discussion in this report, one can zero in on a more suitable locality for relocation based on other parameters like proximity to their work location, rent etc.
